

Please provide some basic information.

First Last

*Name: Jay Allen

*1. Denying federal funding to "sanctuary cities" that do not comply with federal immigration laws.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Denying federal funding to "sanctuary cities" that do not comply with federal immigration laws. Space for Comments

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*2. Prohibiting abortion except when it is necessary to prevent the death of the mother.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Prohibiting abortion except when it is necessary to prevent the death of the mother. Space for Comments

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*3. Making permanent the tax relief provisions of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Making permanent the tax relief provisions of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. Space for Comments

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*4. Interpreting the U.S. Constitution in light of current times, rather than adhering to the framers' original intent or text.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Interpreting the U.S. Constitution in light of current times, rather than adhering to the framers' original intent or text. Space for Comments

The Constitution is based on timeless principles.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*5. Adding "sexual orientation," "gender identity," and "gender expression" to the protected classes of race, religion, age, sex, and ancestry in nondiscrimination law.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Adding "sexual orientation," "gender identity," and "gender expression" to the protected classes of race, religion, age, sex, and ancestry in nondiscrimination law. Space for Comments

Addition of these as protected classes would weaken the protections of the currently listed classes, especially women and religious people.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*6. Requiring a health care practitioner to provide medical care to a baby born alive who survives an attempted abortion.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Requiring a health care practitioner to provide medical care to a baby born alive who survives an attempted abortion. Space for Comments

As a practicing physician, I think it is immoral and unethical to withhold lifesaving treatment from any patient.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*7. Enacting federal tax credits for donations to state-based scholarship programs to provide educational options such as private or homeschools.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Enacting federal tax credits for donations to state-based scholarship programs to provide educational options such as private or homeschools. Space for Comments

Our public education system has been hijacked, it is time to give parents back control of the education of their children.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*8. Amending the U.S. Constitution to require Congress to balance the federal budget every year.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Amending the U.S. Constitution to require Congress to balance the federal budget every year. Space for Comments

I strongly agree that congress should abide by a budget, but I am not convinced that an amendment is the proper way to achieve that goal.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*9. Overturning the Hyde Amendment which denies all Federal funding for abortion (except in case of risk to the life of the mother and pregnancies caused by rape/incest).

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Overturning the Hyde Amendment which denies all Federal funding for abortion (except in case of risk to the life of the mother and pregnancies caused by rape/incest). Space for Comments

We have an obligation to defend the rights and liberties of all citizens, most particularly the unborn, who cannot defend themselves.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*10. Extending the 1982 deadline for ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Extending the 1982 deadline for ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Space for Comments

Even if I thought it was good policy, too much time has passed. I personally think this was bad policy from the outset, but if someone thinks this is good policy, I think they should start over from the beginning.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*11. Expanding background checks to include guns purchased from private individuals.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Expanding background checks to include guns purchased from private individuals. Space for Comments

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

*12. Protecting individuals and businesses from being required to provide services or use their artistic expression in a manner that violates their moral or religious beliefs.

- Support
 Oppose
 Undecided

Protecting individuals and businesses from being required to provide services or use their artistic expression in a manner that violates their moral or religious beliefs. Space for Comments

Comments: Laws, as currently implemented, are designed to vilify those who speak the truth about religious principles and morality. If truth matters, which I think it does, religious people should be allowed to decline services based on their religious beliefs.

(Maximum response 255 chars, approx. 5 rows of text)

or